

The call for IFS Basic Research Grant Applications 2020-S
Deadline for submission: 30 November 2019.

A. I have already created an account, but I cannot log in / access it.

Your account is not active – please do not create a new one. Contact IFS to have your account activated. annika.eriksson@ifs.se or bahati.orldendo@ifs.se

B. I applied in an earlier session, but my application was not approved.

Please give the old application number as a reference in the new application.

C. I am an IFS grantee, I want to apply for a renewal but I do not have an account in the IFS Community. What do I do?

Contact IFS for instructions before registering. Send an e-mail to Applications@ifs.se and give your IFS grant number as reference in the subject line.

D. I am a first time applicant, I want to apply for an IFS grant and I don't have an account in the IFS Community. What do I do?

Check list for eligibility:

- Are you enrolled in a PhD programme or have you within five years completed a PhD degree?
- Are you a citizen of an eligible country, and plan to carry out your research in an eligible country (this does not have to be the country of citizenship) (> Eligible Countries list)?
- Does your research topic fall within the IFS research areas (> IFS Research Areas)?
- You must be affiliated with an eligible regional or national University, Research Institute, or Research-orientated NGO in an eligible country (> Eligible Countries list)?

If you say “yes” to all 3 statements, you are eligible for an IFS Basic research grant. To begin your application you need to register an account on the IFS community.

- 1) Go to: IFS Community Sign Up
<https://intl-foundation-science.force.com/community/CommunitiesSelfRegCustom>
- 2) Fill out the fields; make sure to select “Applicant” in the field “Role”.
- 3) Create your own password
- 4) Submit – and now you have access to the IFS Community. You will receive a confirmation by e-mail.

In the IFS Community, you will find guidelines and other documents on how to create and fill in your application. Please read them carefully before starting to your application.
